HAITI NEEDS OUR SUPPORT

At 8:29 a.m. on Saturday, August 14, a magnitude 7.2 earthquake struck Haiti's Tiburon Peninsula, about 150 kilometers west of the capital, Port-au-Prince. By Monday, it was being reported that the death toll had crossed 1,300; 13,600 homes were severely damaged; and that 800,000 people were directly affected. The victims were also bracing for a coming tropical storm.

Development and Peace's partners, ITECA and Caritas Haiti, swung into action, sending relief trucks and assessment teams to the affected areas. These are the very regions whose recovery you had generously supported after Hurricane Matthew in 2016. Now, our partners need your support once again to step up their relief efforts and to develop a sustained recovery program.

CANADIAN AID TO PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS (CAPC)

Abduction and Rape of Girls from Religious Minorities

We would like to bring your attention to the heartbreaking atrocity which three-year-old Aleena faced. Aleena was brutally raped by Mohammad Saleem in a school classroom on July 25, 2021, in Raiwand City. The school is funded by UNICEF.

A small Canadian Aid to Persecuted Christians (CAPC) team paid a solidarity visit to the family. The family raised the need for legal aid as Saleem seems to be politically and religiously influenced. No matter how connected the accused is, CAPC will legally fight to serve justice for Aleena and her family.

The abduction and rape of girls from religious minorities are getting very common in Pakistan. CAPC receives ongoing requests to extend its legal and financial support in such cases.

Canadian Aid to Persecuted Christians raise APPEAL for funds to release Christian girls and save them from atrocity, sexual abuse, rape, abduction, forced conversion to Islam, and forced marriages.
