Frassati was a handsome, athletic and fun-loving young man from a rich, aristocratic Italian family who turned from a life of privilege to one devoted to working with the poor, suffering and homeless, and was a courageous witness of Christian faith and charity to many others. An avid mountain climber, Frassati exemplified a great love for life, nature and humanity. He was a leader of youth in Italy in Catholic social justice and charitable organizations, and is the patron saint of World Youth Days. He died of the polio virus at the age of 24.

St. John Paul II called Blessed Giorgio Frassati, "The Man of the Eight Beatitudes," and his friends described him as "an explosion of joy." This fun-loving, friendly Italian youth ascended the mountain of personal holiness with zealous tenacity -- in much the same fashion that he scaled his beloved Italian Alps. In this motivating video, Christine Wohar, Executive Director of Frassati USA and Wanda Gawronska, niece of Pier Giorgio, examine the life, spirituality, and astounding legacy of good works of this outstanding Catholic man.

The "King of Kings" tells the story of Jesus Christ's life, miracles, and sacrifice through the imaginative eyes of a young boy, as his father, Charles Dickens, narrates it as a bedtime story, creating a journey of faith, hope, and redemption.

Book

In his first apostolic exhortation, Dilexi Te ("I have loved you"), Pope Leo XIV focuses on poverty and love for the poor. The Holy Father signed this first magisterial document of his pontificate on October 4, 2025, the feast of Saint Francis of Assisi.

The document's title is reminiscent of the fourth and final encyclical of Pope Francis, Dilexit Nos, on the human and divine love of the heart of Jesus Christ, released in October 2024. Dilexi Te, begun by Pope Francis before his death and completed by Pope Leo XIV, turns our attention to how we can become a church for the poor.

DVD PROGRAM WHEN YOU PRAY, A CLEAR PATH TO A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

You know prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace. What God did in the lives of countless saints, he wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on.

Authored and presented by Dr. Edward Sri.
