The Diocese of Prince Albert has a set standard and guidelines for activity management including supervision, training, and health matters. These standards are in our Diocesan Responsible Ministry Protocol and are available upon request.
<ul> <li>During a typical year, your child or youth will participate in a variety of activities, which may include, but are not limited to: <ul> <li>Arts and crafts (use of scissors, glue, other small craft material)</li> <li>Active games (physical activities that may involve balls, running, skipping, jumping, etc.)</li> <li>Use of equipment (for crafts, games, cooking, etc.)</li> <li>Active outdoor activities in the community (walking to other locations in the community, outdoor games, skating, sledding, bowling, swimming at a public pool, etc.)</li> <li>Excursions in the community (visit to senior center, parks, etc.)</li> <li>Meals and snacks (each participant must complete a Health Information Form (Appendix 10)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
In all activities there is an element of risk. Adults in charge of activities will take all reasonable precautions to minimize these risks; this is no guarantee against injury or loss. Some of the risks associated with typical activities include, but are not limited to scrapes, cuts, or bruises; sprains; strains or possible broken bones; illness from known or unknown sources; theft or loss of possessions; unforeseen injuries from activities; equipment or actions of your child, other participants or other people, including negligent actions.
You will occasionally need to provide your child or youth with equipment or clothing appropriate for the activity.
From time to time, unscreened adults may be present. We do not permit a child or youth to be left alone with an unscreened adult.
Some activities may take place in the community. These may be within walking distance or may require a different drop-off or pick-up location, which would be your responsibility. You will be informed when the activity will be at a different location than the usual meeting place.
From time to time your child or youth may attend activities or events (i.e., deanery gatherings, diocesan rallies or special outings or events) that would be in addition to the activities outlined above. Your permission will be required for these specific activities/events. If these occur, additional information will be sent home with your child or youth.
