The age range depends on the maturity and group you have who are entering the journey. (i.e., A young ten year old's parents take the baptism prep sessions and the child with their parents enters the preparation journey for confirmation and first communion provided by the parish. A mother with three teenagers can use the teen journey material with her three teenage children. A 12-year old can do the teen journey with their 14-year old brother or vice versa, depending on the maturity of the children.

Leader's guides can be borrowed from the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis.

Training for new catechists is available via Zoom, contact Christine Taylor at 306-922-4747 ext. 227 or via email at catechetics@padiocese.ca.
