CCCB PASTORAL LETTERS

The CCCB has released four pastoral letters on reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples: to the First Nations, to the Inuit, to the Métis, and to the People of God in Canada.

These pastoral letters, adopted by CCCB members in plenary session last September, are meant to be introduced by the local Ordinary in his diocese/eparchy and to serve as a framework to inspire local reconciliation efforts.

You may access the letters on the CCCB website

Raising Children to Give: A Stewardship Workshop

Thursday, March 9 at 3pm in Saskatchewan (4pm Eastern)

Also available on YouTube at <https://bit.ly/Ecumenical-Stewardship>

Generosity is a spiritual practice, just like prayer. Yet so often children are left out of discussions about stewardship and giving. In this engaging webinar, educators and authors Traci Smith and Laura Alary will share practical ways to open the conversation and nurture generosity and giving with children all year long.

All are welcome to join this free 1-hour online webinar offered in the spirit of the LAURC Covenant by the Ecumenical Stewardship Committee of the Anglican Diocese of Qu'Appelle, the Saskatchewan Synod of the ELCIC, and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Regina.

For further details contact Nick Jesson at njesson@archregina.sk.ca

Laura Alary is the coordinator of the McKay Educational Resource Centre at Caven Library, Knox College, Toronto. The McKay Centre focuses on faith formation and congregational life and incorporates a growing Picture Books in Ministry collection. A former Christian education coordinator, Laura is also a writer and storyteller. Her books include Read, Wonder, Listen: Stories from the Bible for Young Readers, the church year series Make Room, Breath, and Look! and most recently Sun in My Tummy, The Astronomer Who Questioned Everything, and Here: The Dot We Call Home.

Traci Smith is a pastor, mother of three, and author of three books Faithful Families: Creating Sacred Moments at Home, Prayers for Faithful Families: Everyday Prayers for Everyday Life, and Faithful Families for Advent and Christmas: 100 Ways to Make the Season Sacred. Traci's passion is helping families find times for connection and spiritual nourishment amid the hustle and bustle of daily life. Traci speaks to both ministry leaders and families about faith formation at home and trends in faith formation within the church. Her weekly newsletter, Treasure Box Tuesday, provides weekly resources, links, and inspiration. Traci has a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and undergraduate degrees from Calvin College.

SASK PRO LIFE ASSOCIATION

Saskatchewan medical professionals are vulnerable to legal prosecution if they do not bend to coercion and intimidation to participate in medical assistance in dying (MAiD). There needs to be legal protection for the medical professionals who object to the participation of MAiD, or the pressures of offering it to their patients.

We would like to see the Saskatchewan Legislative Assembly pass conscience protection legislation similar to that passed in Manitoba in 2017. The legislation passed was effective in aiding those who conscientiously refused and it also protected them from a regulatory body of nurses or doctors requiring participation as well. Manitoba's legislation could act as an example for other provinces to follow.

Sask Pro-Life Association would encourage Saskatchewan residents who support our mission to click on the link below which will take you to the website and sign the petition.

Conscience Rights in Saskatchewan, a group of volunteers plan to meet with Saskatchewan MLAs to discuss the importance of conscience rights legislation for medical professionals and present them with petitions.

Pray for peace in Ukraine

CNEWA Canada renews support for Ukraine as war enters second year - New!

Leading Canadian Catholic agency looks ahead to further Ukraine relief efforts.

Ottawa, February 23, 2023 — One year following the Russian invasion of Ukraine — which has displaced a third of the nation's 41 million people, killed, scarred and wounded tens of thousands of soldiers and civilians, and devastated the country's infrastructure and economy — CNEWA's support to its churches and people remains steadfast.

"This situation that we have seen in Ukraine has been nothing short of painful and tragic beyond measure," said Dr. Adriana Bara, National Director of CNEWA Canada. "Despite the pain and suffering felt by so many people in Ukraine, CNEWA and its partners on the ground in Ukraine and neighbouring countries have been able to provide life and light to so many. We're committed to doing more in 2023 and to seeing that the people of Ukraine are cared for and supported."

In the past year, CNEWA has rushed $5.8 million in emergency funds to support church-led relief initiatives in Ukraine.

Mobilizing its vast network of local charities, Caritas Ukraine, the charitable initiative of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, has reached more than 2.1 million people alone, primarily in the form of food and hygienic services, shelter, bedding and provision of water.

"I am incredibly encouraged by the generosity and prayerful support of so many donors from coast to coast to coast," Archbishop Marcel Damphousse of Ottawa-Cornwall said. As Chair of the CNEWA Canada Board of Directors, Archbishop Damphousse is heartened by the compassion and love for neighbour that has been shown to the people of Ukraine in such impactful ways through sharing of time and financial treasure, as well as prayer. CNEWA, in both Canada and the United States, has supported more than 100 specific relief initiatives in Ukraine — much of it through Caritas, but also through Greek Catholic and Orthodox eparchies, parishes, seminaries and religious houses, as well as the Ukrainian Catholic University in Lviv, including:

- emergency food packages for more than 40,000 people in areas under siege
- care for displaced pensioners near Odesa
- shelter for people with special needs in Sambir-Drohobych
- spiritual and psychological counseling for those displaced to Ternopil
- temporary housing for displaced families from Mariupol in Zaporizhzhia
- medicines and other aid to nine medical facilities, including Lviv's Sheptytsky Hospital.

The incredible generosity of Canadians in supporting Ukraine last year did not go unnoticed by Monsignor Peter Vaccari, President of CNEWA in New York.

"I am grateful to God that donors across the Canadian and American church have come together in such a powerful way to support the people of Ukraine in their time of need," he said. "We hope and pray for continued contributions, as we support those who have been affected by this tragedy."

Having worked with the Church in Ukraine previously, CNEWA offices in both Canada and the United States were uniquely equipped to respond with immediacy to the escalation of violence by Russian forces.

Learn more about CNEWA's work in Ukraine by visiting cnewa.ca or following the organization on Facebook (@CNEWACanada), Twitter (@CnewaC) and Instagram @cnewacanada.
